

OnePlus Ambassador Program

Campus Recruitment

We are dreamers & builders taking on big challenges in technology, because we believe we can do better. Our teams are tightly collaborative and put full support behind execution to make things happen. Simple, really.

We believe that cutting-edge technology should be accessible to everyone, and we set out to do just that.

Smartphones are the hub of our connected lives, but there is a bigger picture. Our aim is to empower everyone through impactful technology.

We are looking for a fantastic, fun, and creative persona to represent us in an educational environment. To do this you don't even have to be a full-timer. All we need are commitment, quality, and connections so that we can spread our cause, together.

Basically, you will act as a link between OnePlus and your campus environment, in charge of relaying information about our various educational events and activities, and also to gather more crowd.

The campaign will run for 6 months.

You will be trained directly by the OnePlus Team

You'll have the opportunity to do an internship at our office (or our partners'), and even a full time career after you graduate

We'll provide you with our finger-licking-delicious tech goodies to perform your tasks. You'll love it.

You will have your ideas implemented in real life to make impact for a good cause, changing lives around you

There is also a chance to visit OnePlus Headquarters in Shenzhen, China to witness everything, live.

So if you're ready to do the best work of your life, we'd like to hear from you. E-mail us a story about yourself, your activities, passion, hobbies, and any mind-blowing stuff you've got. Be it your CV, photos, portfolio, recent works, literally anything. Do surprise us!
